SECTION 1: INTRODUCTION

About BPPI

In order to enable a focused and institutional approach to implement the Jan Aushadhi scheme utilizing fully the resources of Central Pharma PSUs, BPPI was established in December, 2008 under the Department of Pharmaceuticals, Government of India. The Bureau has been registered as an independent society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 as a separate independent legal entity in April, 2010. BPPI follows the provisions of GFR, 2005 as amended from time to time, the CVC guidelines, and instructions from the Department of Pharmaceuticals. The defined roles of BPPI are:

- Ensure availability of quality medicines at affordable prices.
- Establish exclusive generic medicine stores - JAS
- Procure medicines from manufacturers of pharma product at the lowest price.
- Monitoring proper running of JAS
- Coordinate with pharma PSUs to take up manufacturing of essential medicines and to make it available these JASs.

It was planned that the Central Government would suitably assist the Bureau both financially and technically till the Bureau could sustain itself through its own operations. Other Central and State Pharmaceuticals PSUs would also be given an opportunity to join the Bureau.

The role of Ministry of Health & Family Welfare (MoH&FW) was envisaged to be critical in encouraging doctors to prescribe generic medicines, procuring the same from the JAS.

About Jan Aushadhi

The Pharmaceutical industry has evolved from merely Rs.1500 crores in 1980 to more than Rs.1,19,000 crores by 2012. Still, medicines in almost every therapeutic category are sold primarily as branded drugs, at disproportionately very high prices. 80% of out patients care and 60% of all in-hospital care occurs at private facilities in India and majority of households are exposed to private market to buy drugs (Public Health Foundation of India, 2012). According to NSO estimates, up to 79% of health care expenses in rural areas are due to cost of medicines. Thus, access to low-priced generic drugs is very critical in ensuring health care at affordable prices.

‘Ensuring availability of quality medicines at affordable prices to all’ has been the key objectives of the Department of Pharmaceuticals, Government of India. Hence, the Department has decided to launch a nation-wide campaign viz. ‘Jan Aushadhi’ as a direct market intervention strategy.

Objectives of Jan Aushadhi Campaign:

Making quality medicines available at affordable prices for all, particularly the poor and disadvantaged, through specialized outlets called Jan Aushadhi Stores (JAS), so as to reduce medical expenses in patient’s treatment.
The BPPI seeks a communication partner with a track record, adept at print, electronic, and field activations etc to create awareness among people for Jan Aushadhi.

As it has been decided to re-launch Jan Aushadhi Scheme, the agency is required to suggest new logos and punch lines for BPPI and Jan Aushadhi. We need to rope in a celebrity to be the brand ambassador for Jan Aushadhi Scheme. We need to revamp the website of Jan Aushadhi for the launch.
