

BUREAU OF PHARMA PUBLIC SECTOR UNDERTAKINGS OF INDIA (BPPI)

(Society set up under the aegis of Department of Pharmaceuticals, Government of India)

E-1, 8th Floor, Videocon Tower, Jhandewalan Extn., New Delhi – 110055

Exciting Career Opportunities in BPPI

CORRIGENDUM

Refer to our advertisement of recruitment published on 17.04.2020 on our website, the following clarification in the point no. 07 (a) and 08 of General Terms & Conditions have been made to more clarify the terms & conditions:

Point No.	Old Term	Revised Term
07 (a)	He / She will be entitled to consolidated remuneration, conveyance and telephone allowance and provident fund as per rules.	He / She will be entitled to remuneration as per published scale of pay or consolidated remuneration+ conveyance and telephone allowance as per BPPI rules and provident fund as per rules.
8	Initially contractual appointment will be for one to three years and which may or may not be extended based on the performance. There will be three months' probation period during the first-year contract, which may or may not be extended based on the performance. During the period of first year of contract, from the date of joining including the period spent on probation, if the employee leaves/resigns/abandons the services or violates the terms of the appointment, employee will have to pay liquidated damages amounting to six months' basic pay.	Initially contractual appointment will be for one to three years and which may or may not be extended based on the performance. There will be three months' probation period during the first-year contract, which may or may not be extended based on the performance. During the period of first year of contract, from the date of joining including the period spent on probation, if the employee leaves/resigns/abandons the services or violates the terms of the appointment, employee will have to pay liquidated damages amounting to six months' basic pay / consolidated pay.